„Peace be with you“

I wish you

that you get embedded in good relations, which do not brake and even may improve, when conflicts appear in your life, because you are part of a social order where the ban of violence, the rule of law, the ability to cooperate, the possibility to participate in public affairs, social justice and a culture of constructive conflict management have been growing, that you enjoy and get involved in prevention of violence and conflicttransformation by using the means of cooperation and dialogue and legitimization of interests according to universal norm, and that you develop strength in order to turn failure into a next chance.

Relation

Peace and conflict

Assumptions

- Peace is the opposite of violence (within relations)
